

First National Bank and Trust Hosts Students to Learn About Banking:

On Friday, December 16th, 2016, First National Bank and Trust hosted approximately 120 second graders from Hunter Hills Elementary, who learned about money and banks. Pictured above, South Laurel Branch Manager Elizabeth Sparks and Chief Operations Officer Randy Reynolds talk with the students in the lobby of our Main Office. First National Bank contributes many hours each year to student education, both by hosting students at the bank and by making presentations in class rooms.
