

LES SPARKS NAMED SENIOR LENDING OFFICER AT FIRST NATIONAL BANK AND TRUST

October 2, 2017

First National Bank and Trust President and CEO Glenn Calebs has announced that Les Sparks, Senior Vice President, has been named Senior Lending Officer at First National Bank. Les has been in banking for 25 years, and has been affiliated with First National Bank since 1996.

A lifelong resident of Laurel County, Les attended Laurel County High School. He then obtained a Bachelor of Science degree in Criminal Justice from Eastern Kentucky University. He has graduated from several banking schools offered by the Kentucky Bankers Association.

When not at the bank, Les is still hard at work either at home, or at the fire department, where he has been affiliated with the London City Fire Department or the Laurel County Rescue Squad. Les also enjoys restoring classic cars, and has operated an amusement game and jukebox business for over twenty years.

Les, his wife, Elizabeth, and their daughter Maggie, reside in London. They attend Hawk Creek Church.

First National Bank & Trust is a locally owned financial institution that has served the financial needs of London and Corbin for 114 years. First National Bank offers a complete line of banking products and services, including checking, savings, certificates of deposit, IRAs and HSAs, consumer and business loans, and mobile and internet banking with mobile deposit and bill payment.
