

Local Kids Win “World’s Biggest Christmas Stocking”

On December 20th, First National Bank and Trust gave away the “World’s Biggest Christmas Stocking” to a local family. The stocking is 8 feet tall and filled with toys and games. This year’s winner was Sue Miller, of Gray, Kentucky, who plans to give the stocking to her three grandchildren. Pictured awarding the stocking to Mrs. Miller is First National Bank and Trust’s Chief Operations Officer, Randy Reynolds.